We've come a long way, but the journey has just begun...

At The Children's Hospital at Westmead we recognise the significant advancements that have been made through a collaborative, multidisciplinary approach in the care of paediatric trauma, surgical, orthopaedics and rehabilitation patients.

In fact, we've amalgamated care of these patients into one new unit where the specialist attention of multidisciplinary teams is dedicated and directly focussed on these areas of paediatric care.
